Bombers Players - College and More

Every season our team helps players move on to play on the next level. Here's this year's Bomber players who will continue to play on college teams.

- 1 Brennon Williams – Kentucky State University
- 2 Daylin Crabtree – Brescia University
- 7 Demetrio Ortiz – Brescia University
- 9 Jordon Tolle – Oakland City University
- 11 Braxton French – University of Southern Indiana
- 13 Kobe Coomes – Georgetown University
- 14 Tommy Clark – Brescia University
- 20 Preston Cottrell – University of Southern Indiana
- 22 Tucker Hagan – Lincoln Memorial University
- 24 Weston Hayden – Georgetown University
- 25 Nick Belcher – University of Southern Indiana

Under normal circumstances our team represents Owensboro's James Yates American Legion Post. It's the nation's largest wartime veterans service organization, committed to mentoring youth and sponsorship of programs in our community, advocating patriotism and honor, promoting strong national security, and continued devotion to our fellow servicemembers and veterans. In the past, we had had players who decided to serve in the military. This year, we are thrilled to announce that we have a young man who has selected to serve our country.

Thank you for this commitment!

2019 Jimmy V Foundation Classic

Last July, the Bombers hosted Oldham County to honor the Jimmy V Foundation, accepting donations as admission to the game. Our team matched the first $500 dollars and players wore special teal camoflage uniforms to recognize prostate cancer patients. We donated close to $2,000 to the "Kentucky Friends of V" assuring the funds stay in the Louisville/Lexington Cancer Research Centers.

We are trying to expand this annual Classic to 5 teams in July 2020, but with the challenges the COVID-19 Virus poses, it is up in the air as we attempt securing a home field to host this all important event.
